

CONSTITUTION DAY

The Constitution Day is celebrated on 26th November 2025 at 11.00 A.M. Dr. Shivanand Pathodi Rtd. Associate Professor S.S. Khoba College B.Kalyan is invited as inaugurator and the Chief Guest. In his lecture, he explained the importance of constitution to our students. He urged the students to uphold their responsibilities as citizens and actively participate in the democratic process. He stressed that the decisions and policies implemented today will shape the lives of future generations and plays a crucial role in building a developed and empowered India. Sri. Baswaraj Swamy Head Dept of Political Science delivered introductory remark and lead the reading of preamble to the constitution. The quiz competition on Constitution day was conducted earlier to the programme and the winners are awarded certificates in the programme Principal Sri. Gopal Badiger delivered presidential remark. The Programme is concluded by vote of Thanks by Kumari Pavitra B.A.I semester student.

The programme is being inaugurated by lighting the lamp

Sri. Baswaraj Swamy Head Dept of Pol-Science welcomed the guests and delivered an introductory remark

Reading Preamble to the Constitution is lead by Sri. Baswaraj Swamy, Head Dept of Pol-Science

The Chief Guest Dr. Shivanand Pathodi Delivered a special lecture on “Constitution Day”

The winners in the quiz competition on Constitution are awarded certificates

Our principal Sri. Gopal Badiger delivered presidential remark